“I am an attorney who focuses on complex commercial litigation and intellectual property disputes.”

Connor Bodin practices complex commercial litigation. Connor has a reputation for strategic thinking, meticulous attention to detail, and relentless advocacy on behalf of his clients. His experience spans commercial contracts, intellectual property disputes, securities litigation, breach of fiduciary duty claims, and other complex commercial matters. Connor has a proven track record of achieving favorable outcomes through both litigation and alternative dispute resolution methods.

Business Litigation

- Gaming
- Intellectual Property Litigation

Connor served as an extern to the Honorable Gloria M. Navarro in the United States District Court, District of Nevada before joining Howard & Howard. He graduated magna cum laude from the William S. Boyd School of Law, where he served as an Articles Editor on the Nevada Law Journal.

Representative Matters

- Successfully defended the CEO of a large energy company in a shareholder lawsuit claiming $2.6 million in damages for alleged claims of breach of fiduciary duty, alter ego, and unjust enrichment. Dismissal was obtained after successfully arguing that the lawsuit must have been brought as a shareholder derivative claim, and that the shareholder plaintiffs did not have standing to sue.
- Representation of an investment consultant in downtown Las Vegas - Obtained a $6.8 million judgment on claims for alter ego, fraudulent conveyance, and civil conspiracy against real estate developers.
