“I am a solution-driven attorney with experience in business and real estate transactional and litigation matters.”

Cami has an extensive business, real estate, and litigation background. She has represented and advised clients in connection with all of their business needs, including the proper structuring (or restructuring) of their enterprise, all types of business and real estate negotiations and contracts, corporate governance, and general business and real estate dealings. Cami’s litigation experience includes primarily partner and shareholder divorces and disputes, breach of contract actions, and real estate litigation. She has successfully settled more than 300 cases through mediation and litigated numerous matters through summary adjudication, arbitration, and trial.
