“I am a corporate attorney who assists clients with their strategic and financial transactions.”

Carter concentrates his practice in corporate and business law, with a special focus on mergers and acquisitions; divestitures; the formation, organization, and funding of startup businesses; corporate governance; real estate; and general business matters. Through his work with both public and private entities, his experience includes drafting and reviewing purchase agreements, organizational and governance documents, and various loan and credit facility documents.

Carter began his career with Howard & Howard as a summer associate in 2018. Prior to joining as a full-time associate, he gained valuable experience with a private equity fund by assisting in sourcing and analyzing middle-market acquisition targets.
