“I am a litigator who draws on my experience clerking for a federal judge to help resolve clients’ disputes.”

Dane focuses his practice on business disputes in federal and state courts. To best serve his clients, he relies on experience gained while litigating in private practice and serving as a judicial law clerk to the honorable Stephen J. Murphy, III.

While in law school, Dane served as the Editor in Chief of the Wayne Law Review and the Wayne Law Moot Court team as a brief writer.
