

Jaime Orlowsky Cook

Detroit, MI

📞 248.723.0372

📠 248.645.1568

✉️ jcook@howardandhoward.com

“ Tax and business planning is never just about numbers: it is about people, legacy, and long-term success. ”

Jaime is a member of the firm’s Business and Corporate Tax Group. Her practice focuses on U.S. federal tax matters, including cross-border structuring, transfer pricing, residency planning, and complex business transactions.

She advises individuals, closely held businesses, and multinational companies, including Fortune 500 clients, on strategic tax planning, operational structuring, and compliance matters involving both domestic and international operations.

Jaime combines technical tax knowledge with practical business insight developed through both legal and in-house leadership experience. In addition to her legal practice, she has advised businesses on financial strategy, operational integration, and growth initiatives through prior consulting work and business ownership.

Business & Corporate

• Business and Corporate Tax

Education

- The Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University, 2002
 - J.D.
- James Madison University, 1997
 - B.B.A.

Admissions

- Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, 2002