“I am an experienced attorney who assists clients in defining and executing strategies to achieve client-driven results.”

Jennifer is an accomplished, flexible, solutions-focused attorney with a broad range of litigation and transactional experience. She represents business clients providing guidance in corporate and transaction matters, including asset purchases and stock sales; negotiating and preparing commercial, acquisition, and financing agreements; and the preparation, negotiation, and review of a variety of other agreements, including employment contracts, vendor agreements, and construction agreements. Jennifer is experienced in franchise law and assists franchisors with preparing and updating Franchise Disclosure Documents, preparing franchise and other agreements, and advising on issues related to the franchise system and management of franchisees. She monitors privacy regulations, such as GDPR and CCPA, and counsels clients on data protection best practices. Jennifer consults clients on how to comply with privacy regulations and prepares privacy policies and other required agreements.
