“I am a well-rounded litigation attorney with experience across various industries, including healthcare and cannabis with a specific focus on distressed cannabis businesses.”

John Savage is an accomplished litigator, whose practice is primarily focused on business litigation. Prior to joining Howard & Howard, John developed a niche representing receivers appointed over cannabis businesses, including the first cannabis receivership in Nevada. He has also been engaged in personal injury defense and he’s defended clients in administrative disciplinary actions brought before the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners and Nevada’s Cannabis Compliance Board.

Additionally, John serves as an arbitrator in cases assigned to the Court Annexed Arbitration program of the Eighth Judicial District Court of Clark County, Nevada.
