“I am an attorney who adds value to my clients' businesses.”

Mr. Michniacki advises clients on a range of corporate law issues, including financing, mergers and acquisitions, corporate maintenance, and contract negotiation and drafting.

Mr. Michniacki's clients range from startups to established mid-market enterprises to publicly traded companies, and his decade of prior experience in business operations allows him to provide scalable services to meet each client's needs regardless of company size.

Prior to joining Howard & Howard, he worked in golf facility management and oversaw operations for a number of Michigan golf courses. Using this background, Mr. Michniacki addresses legal issues from a practical and business oriented perspective.
