“I am an attorney practicing in appellate and trial litigation nationwide.”

Michael handles a variety of matters including products liability, employment litigation, and general commercial and contractual disputes. Over the past decade, he has litigated matters in 25 different states, and argued cases in federal appellate courts, state courts of appeal, and state supreme courts.

Business Litigation

Representative Matters

- Successfully defended and resolved hundreds of medical device products liability cases nationwide, through summary judgments, mediations, and informal settlement negotiations.
- Successfully petitioned Ohio Supreme Court for discretionary review of an issue of first impression regarding statutory damages caps as applied to defamation claims and obtained a favorable decision for our hospital client.
- Successfully defended a hospital/employer in the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals where the Court affirmed a summary judgment decision in favor of our client where a former employee claimed discrimination and retaliation under Title VII and Illinois law, and failure to accommodate under the Americans with Disabilities Act.
- Defended a private utility company before the Michigan Court of Appeals and Michigan Supreme Court in a high stakes tax valuation dispute, obtaining favorable decisions from the appellate courts.
