“Litigator with over 35 years of experience in commercial, insurance, products, and construction litigation.”

Bob Graziani’s principal areas of practice include business litigation, insurance coverage and defense, products liability, construction defects, environmental law, and alternative dispute resolution.

Bob is experienced in managing and resolving complex insurance coverage and toxic tort cases for insurance companies and businesses. He represents and counsels insurance companies on a myriad of coverage issues, such as professional liability, general liability (primary and excess), first party property, employers liability, cyber liability, directors and officers, bad faith, and construction defects. Bob has successfully represented insurers on a broad range of coverage issues and has participated in groundbreaking federal and state court decisions upholding the rights of insurers. Bob has also represented manufacturers, distributors, retailers, and installers in commercial disputes and products liability cases, and has served as national/regional/state counsel for these matters.

Bob regularly prepares coverage analysis, opinions, and coverage positions on behalf of insurers. He has advised numerous buyers and sellers of businesses on the use of transactional liability insurance to manage the risks inherent in mergers and acquisitions. Bob also counsels clients on obtaining the appropriate insurance coverages for their business once a sale or purchase is complete, as well as providing guidance for existing businesses with respect to their insurance coverage needs and management based upon the operations and services they provide.
