“I am a pragmatic attorney who focuses on effective and efficient advocacy for my clients at each phase of litigation.”

Steve Kish is a general litigation associate. Before joining Howard & Howard, he clerked for the Honorable James C. Mahan in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada. In law school, Steve competed nationally on Boyd's moot court and mock trial teams, externed with the Clark County District Attorney's Office, and worked with Nevada Legal Aid through the Partners in Pro Bono Program. He brings this experience to bear when helping find his clients favorable solutions to their legal problems.
